33      Brackets is a different type of editor.
34      One notable difference is that this editor is written in JavaScript, HTML and CSS.
35      This means that most of you using Brackets have the skills necessary to modify and extend the editor.
36      In fact, we use Brackets every day to build Brackets. It also has some unique features like Quick Edit,
37      Live Preview and others that you may not find in other editors.
38      To learn more about how to use those features, read on.
