of man, his moral liability and the reasons therefor, their influences, the consequences of divine sustenance and mercy, the significance of human actions, correlation between social order and human existence and, finally, the facts of mute reality and intangible categories of things and ideas.

Sociability

Anyone going through the Hujjat Allah al-Baligha will not fail to mark that the Shāh's percipience and realism as well the trend of fast changing events in his day had led him to conclude that the people will in the near future seek to know the rationale and significance of shari'ah, particularly of the teachings, and injunctions contained in the hadith and sunnah of the holy Prophet and the relationship between religion and human life. They would, he seems to have anticipated, endeavour to discover the correlation between human life and divine guidance in the wider context of social relationship and test the validity of these teachings according to their utility in that sphere.

The Shāh wrote the Hujjat, primarily to expound the purpose and reality of the shari'ah and to present a rational interpretation of the hadith and sunnah but before dealing with the matters defined as permissible and forbidden which are related, basically to rewards and punishments and salvation, he initiates the discussion with the physical phenomena and human life on whose understanding depends the formation of a healthy social order and a blooming culture. The Shāh has coined the word irtifaqāt which, so far as our knowledge goes, no Muslim theologian, philosopher or sociologist had used earlier, at least in the sense he has employed the term.

Significance of the term

'Irtifaq', in the Shah's terminology, signifies lawful dealings between individuals, cooperation and collaboration and the means adopted for mutual benefit or for an agreeable and moderate social existence.²²

The Shāh has, in this way, reviewed individual and
